Cafritz received his BFA from Bennington College in 1985 with a concentration in sculpture and painting. He earned his MFA from Purchase College in 1990 as a sculpture major. Cafritz has exhibited throughout the United States. Cafritz is also the Executive Director of Salem Artworks in Salem, New York.

Show Duration - Saturday September 15 thru Sunday October 7. Opening Reception : Friday, September 28 from 600–8 PM. Artist Talk: Thursday October 4 starting at 7 PM.

Author Event: Special Since '92: The Story of Cambridge Football

CAMBRIDGE – Join Battenkill Books for a book talk and signing with local author and CCS alumnus Gerry Preece, as he discusses his new book, Special Since '92: The Story of Cambridge Football. The discussion will take place Thursday, September 13 at 7 p.m.

Over the last 26 years, Cambridge Central School's football team has won four state championships and played in three more. They have been the Northeast New York Regional Champs fourteen times, have been Sectional Champs sixteen times, and have earned Divisional and/or League Championships 21 times. Cambridge boasts one of the most consistent and prolific high school football offenses in America. Cambridge has ranked in New York State's top 10 teams for their respective class in 20 of the last 26 years. Over these 26 years, the team's average score vs. opponent's is 36-11. Cambridge's win rate is 86%. The reasons why are rooted in history, and they can be found inside this book.

The author's proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated to the CCS Tribesmen Booster Club, which supports all CCS sports. Call Battenkill Books with questions at 518-677-2515.

17th Annual Landscapes for Landsake Art Sale & Exhibition Opens Columbus Day Weekend

CAMBRIDGE – For 28 years the Agricultural Stewardship Association (ASA) has worked to accomplish a singular mission: protect the farms, rich soils and agricultural landscape in Washington and Rensselaer counties for future generations. In that time they've managed to conserve 112 farms and 17,500 acres. For the last 16 years, a significant source of funding for this mission has come from Landscapes for Landsake Art Sale and Exhibition, a celebration of the land by the community of local artists.

The sale takes place in the historic barn at Maple Ridge, 172 State Route 372 in the hamlet of Coila, just west of the Village of Cambridge. The show opens with a wine and cheese reception on Saturday, October 6th from 12 to 5 p.m. Admission is $10 per person. The gallery is also open from noon to 4 p.m. on Sunday and Monday free of charge.

Landscapes for Landsake is the region's largest art buying event of the season and ASA's largest fundraiser of the year. Participating artists generously donate fifty percent of their proceeds to support ASA's farmland conservation work. Funds raised from the sale directly benefit regional projects. For the past fifteen years the success of this event has had a tremendous impact on ASA's ability to protect local farms.

Adirondack Wool and Arts Festival

GREENWICH – The Adirondack Wool and Arts Festival will be held September 22-23 beginning at 10 a.m. at the Washington County Fairgrounds in Greenwich. Formerly known as the the Southern Adirondack Fiber Festival the name has now been changed to the Adirondack Wool and Arts Festival.

Established in 2008 and part of the Washington County Fair located in Greenwich, New York, this festival is a celebration of how agriculture plays an important role in arts. Through the production of natural animal fibers (wool and fleece) yarns are produced and made into beautiful arts and fashions. Specialty soaps, healing arts, craft beverages, photography, pottery, jewelry, and more... All items have a start in agriculture or a connection to agriculture.

Under its new name, the event will continue to offer the public education on the products produced in fiber arts, raw fleece, roving, spinning supplies, needle felting, dyes, yarns, and items needed to knit, crochet, and weave. The change to the title of the festival was made to represent the additions that this year's and future festivals will include. New artisans and vendors will include pottery, body care products, healing arts, jewelry, culinary arts, craft beverage producers, leather, paper crafts, photography, printmaking, sculpture, wood arts, and more.

Wellness Fair

HOOSICK FALLS - Following up on the success of HAYC3's Health and Wellness Expo last year, HAYC3 will be hosting a Wellness Fair on October 20, 2018.

Last year's family-friendly event featured over thirty exhibitors including dietitians, Reiki practitioners, skin & health experts, fitness instructors, vendors, and more. The event will also feature a collection of local vendors who specialize in healthcare and natural products.

According to HAYC3 Executive Director Aelish Nealon,

"Each year, the Wellness Fair provides a great opportunity to learn about preventive measures, both big and small, that can be implemented on a personal level or within a family to improve individual health and manage chronic conditions. It's also a great way to learn about the many care providers in our community who offer services, like chiropractic, weight-loss consultations, reiki, or internal energy, that many might not be familiar with."

Museum Victorian Tea Coming

CAMBRIDGE – On Sunday, October 14, at 2:00 p.m., the Cambridge Historical Society & Museum will once again present the very popular “Victorian Tea.” The well-known historical presenter, Phyllis Chapman, will preside over a fashion show featuring her original outfits from the 1800’s, all new this year, worn by live models. Her presentation includes interesting comments about the fashions and times of the period, all set to music. Guests will be seated at tables set with cloths and fine china while enjoying delicious tea sandwiches and homemade sweets. Of course, there will also be tea. The cost is $15 per person, and reservations are required. Checks made payable to Cambridge Historical Society & Museum (CHS&M) can be mailed to CHS&M, P.O. Box 123, Cambridge, New York 12816. The Museum is located at 12 Broad Street, just west of the railroad tracks. There is a limited number of guests, and reservations are on a first come, first serve basis.
