Whitehall Sasquatch Festival

WHITEHALL – The legendary Sasquatch Festiva returns for another year! It's like a mystical blend of folklore, mystery, and good old fashioned fun.

The Sasquatch Festival & Calling Contest is a delightful gathering that takes place on September 26, 2026, right in the heart of the Adirondacks. Now, Whitehall has quite the reputation when it comes to Bigfoot sightings—so it's only fitting that they host this celebration of the elusive creature.

Here's what you can expect at the festival:

Bigfoot Researchers & Evidence: Yes, you read that correctly. If you've ever wondered what a Bigfoot researcher looks like this is your chance to find out. They'll be there, sharing their insights and maybe even showing off plaster casts of giant footprints.

Live Music: Because what's a festival without some toe-tapping tunes? Picture yourself grooving by the beautiful banks of the Champlain Canal.

Beer Garden: Sasquatch sightings might be more convincing after a pint or two. The beer garden is where you can swap theories with fellow festival-goers while sipping on a cold one.

Food Trucks: Because even mythical creatures get hungry. Grab a bite from the food trucks—they're like the culinary equivalent of a blurry Bigfoot photo: mysterious and delicious.

Specialty Items and Merchandise: Want a Sasquatch-themed mug? Or perhaps a T-shirt that says, "I Believe (Sort Of)"? You'll find it here.

Exhibits from Community Organizations: Learn about local wildlife, conservation efforts, and maybe even how to make your own Bigfoot call. (Hint: It involves a mix of primal screams and tree-knocking.)

And now, the pièce de résistance: the Sasquatch Calling Contest! Imagine a crowd gathered, eyes wide, as brave souls step up to the mic and attempt their best Sasquatch impression. Will they nail it? Will they summon the elusive creature? Or will they accidentally call in a confused moose? Either way, it's bound to be entertaining.

Fun Fact: Last year, over 3,000 people from all corners of the country flocked to Whitehall for this unique event. That's a whole lot of believers—or at least curious folks who want to believe.

So mark your calendar, pack your sense of adventure, and head to Whitehall. Who knows? Maybe you'll catch a glimpse of the legendary Sasquatch—or at least have a blast trying! See you at the festival September 27 from 11am to 6pm at Skenesborough Park in Whitehall.

For more info call 518-499-4435.

Annual Landscapes for Landsake

CAMBRIDGE - Buy art to save farms – that is what your purchase at Landscapes for Landsake will do. Since 1990 the Agricultural Stewardship Association has worked to accomplish a singular mission: protect the farms and forests, rich soils and agricultural landscape in Washington and Rensselaer counties for future generations. In that time, ASA has managed to conserve over 33,000 acres on 170 properties. For the last 24 years, a significant source of funding has come from Landscapes for Landsake Art Sale and Exhibition, a celebration of the land by our community of local artists.

Landscapes for Landsake is the region's largest art-buying event of the season and ASA's largest fundraiser of the year. Participating artists generously donate 50% of their proceeds to support ASA's conservation work. This year's exhibition features the work of 68 artists. Approximately 300 works of art will be displayed in the barn at Maple Ridge and additonal works will be available on www.LandscapesforLandsake.com. Many of the artists will be on hand to discuss their work during the in-person event on October 10 and 11.

This year's in-person show will be open October 10th & 11th, 2026 from 12 to 5 p.m. in the historic barn at Maple Ridge. Admission is $10. Drop-ins are welcome or you may reserve a ticket in advance. The gallery is also open from 12 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, October 12th free of charge. Wine will be available by the glass on Saturday.

The online sale will launch on October 12th at 7 pm and continue thru November 15th on www.LandscapesforLandsake.com. The website features elegantly designed collections from each artist, bios, videos and so much more, accessible from the comfort of your home.
